THE NATION'S WARDS.

Molokai's Settlement of the "Living Dead"—A 900-Year Visit to the Home of the Unfortunates.

Molokai, the "land of precipices," has, on a lowland at its northeast end, extending seaward and surrounded by almost impassable precipices, one of those settlements of ostracized people whose sad affliction has attracted world-wide attention and sympathy.

Kalaupapa, the chief town of the leper settlement, borders the sea, while two miles away, a little further inland, is the settlement of Kalawao. This is the place selected by the Hawaiian Government for the segregation of those afflicted with the disease and on being transferred thither the people become the actual wards of the Nation, all of their necessities being supplied at the hands of the Board of Health. None bearing the taint of leprosy can leave the precincts of this place only by "passing to that bourne from which no traveler returns." Rarely indeed are friends or visitors allowed within the territory of the settlements and, to all intents and purposes, in carrying out the measures of segregation the settlements at Kalaupapa and Kalawao are peopled by the living dead. "I must be cruel only to be kind," as the moody Dane hath said, so the Hawaiian Government in its enforced segregation has regard for the greatest public good. At every session of the Legislature (once each two years) the "wards of the Nation" are thought of specially and expense, time and trouble are incurred to investigate the affairs at the settlement.

At 7 p. m. on the 2nd inst., a visiting committee of members of the Legislature, consisting of Hon. W.
O. Smith (chairman), R. R. Hind, Alex. Young, J. G. Hoapili, G. P.
Kamaoia, J. A. Akia, J. Kalua, J.
W. Bishop, L. W. P. Kamae, T. S.
Nahina and took passage from Honolulu on board the steamer Waialeale, Captain Freeman (the use of the steamer having been kindly tendered by the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co.), for the Settlement at Molokai. By invitation these were also visitors the Legislative reporters of the BULLETIN (Frank Godfrey) and Advertiser (J. K. Keola). President David Dayton and Secretary Chas. Wilcox of the Board of Health accompanied the expedition, having as special guests Hon. H. P. Bal-win, Hon. G. N. Wilcox (members of the House of Nobles), Secretary George P. Blow of Admiral Brown's staff, Assistant Surgeon L. W.
Spratling, U. S. S. San Francisco, Surgeon R. F. Bates of H. B. M. S.
Champion, Mr. C. A. Brown, Dr.
McLennan and Mr. Lowell. A quick but rough voyage was made to the Settlement, Capt. Freeman dropping anchor off Kalaupapa at 6:35 o'clock on Sunday morning. But little delay was made in the debarkation of the visitors. On arrival the visitors received an ovation from a number of the unfortunates assembled, whose responsive aloha had deeper meaning than the louder expression of salutation from a brass band of twelve pieces which forms one of the late additions to the pleasures of the Settlement. In accordance with a stringent rule the visitors were compelled to go to the house of Superintendent Tell and have their passes issued. On this occasion it was both a duty and a pleasure, for many in the haste of debarkation had forgotten the inner man, although a bountiful breakfast had been provided by Captain Freeman, and the aching voids were filled by a breakfast provided by the Superintendent, while the wants of the wayfarers were looked after by Mrs. Tell and her daughters. While the visitors were thus breakfasting their ears were regaled by the performance of numerous pieces by the band. After breakfast the committee proceeded at once with the business in hand, adjournment being had to a covered platform on which the committee and visitors arranged themselves. About three hundred of the "unlucky" (in various stages) were gathered as an audience to listen to the presentation of their grievances by their spokesman, Mr. D. Kalaupapa, an ex-minister of the gospel, and to remarks by the committee.

Following in brief are the causes of complaint presented:

That the houses erected by the lepers at their own expense shall be the property of the friends or relatives of the deceased lepers, and not to be taken arbitrarily by the Board of Health.

That the lepers and kokuas be permitted to plant kalo, potatoes, etc., at Waikolu on the same basis as at Kalaupapa, and that the Board of Health should not claim one-half of the kalo, etc., cultivated.

That a branch hospital be opened at Kalili, Oahu, where mild cases of leprosy from Kalaupapa and other places can be treated.

That Mr. Lowell, Dr. McLennan and others, be permitted to experiment on the lepers at Kalili. We do not know these doctors; we only know them by reputation.

That lepers who have resided for a long term of years at Kalaupapa be allowed to return to their homes.
They are not sick at all. The authorities have expected them to die long ago, but they have outlived the expectations of the authorities.

That beef rations be raised from 7 1/2 pounds to 10 pounds per week; 7 1/2 pounds are not sufficient.

That milk be increased to two quarts per week.

That bread (medium) rations be raised from 8 1/2 pounds to 10 pounds per week.

That rice rations be increased to 10 pounds per week. There are about twenty Chinese here.

That those desiring their rations in flour be given a tin of yeast powder.

That ration of sugar be increased to 2 pounds a week.

That a meat market be opened at Kalaupapa; there are more people here than at Kalawao.

That an artesian well be dug at Pohakuloa, between Kalawao and Kalaupapa. A water pipe has been laid down from Waikolu to Kalawao and Kalaupapa, which supplies the lepers with the finest quality of water that could be found elsewhere, but sometimes there was not enough water in the stream to supply those at Kalaupapa.

That a dispensary be established at the Leper Settlement. As it is now, sick people are obliged to remain in the houses and die there without ever receiving medical aid.

That those not desiring their weekly ration of pa-ai should be given 50 cents "ai hana" instead, or $2 a month. Those who are strong and healthy can cultivate their own taro and therefore do not need the pa-ai.

That the Board of Health furnish the lepers with firewood.

That our friends and relatives be allowed to come and see us sometime during the year.

That the storehouse be removed to Kalaupapa, where most of the lepers reside. We are weak and feeble; we are living in peace and quietness; we have no disturbances here; Mr. Tell rules over us with a kindly spirit, and if all our leprosy govern us as he does, there would be no reason for dissatisfaction among us.

The committee assured the spokesman and the people assembled that their desires would be most carefully investigated.

Considerable speech-making was indulged in, and during its progress several of the committee and visitors paid visits to the Bishop Home for girls, in charge of Sister Marianne and assistants. Here the labor of love which these grand, noble wa-men have undertaken was strikingly apparent, many of the strongest present of the sterner sex inwardly flinching at the prospects of an enforced stay even of but short duration amongst the unfortunates before them. A ride through the settlement was allowed and the Waiahoua valley, the subsidized crater and other points of interest were examined. At Kalawao Father Conradi and Father Wendelin were met and the boys' school visited. The new church, on the site of Father Damien's old one, as well as the tomb of the "apostle of Molokai," were visited. A trip was made by President Dayton, Hon.
Alex. Young, Capt. Freeman, Secretary Wilcox and the BULLETIN representative to the valley of Waikolu, from whence (by the judgment of Hon. C. B. Wilson, when superintendent of water works in 1887 and since) the settlements receive a never-failing supply of pure, cold, clear water.

After again accepting the hospitality of Superintendent Tell by a bountiful dinner the party again embarked on their ocean home and at 7 o'clock Capt. Freeman blew his parting salute, being answered by the Band. A pleasant and fast trip to Honolulu was ended at 12:45 and the company departed, cogitating over the sights seen within the almost terra incognita of the leper settlement on Molokai.

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co.,
